NOVEMBER'S "WILDCAT WILL"

Our Redeemer 's Character and Leadership Development Program runs in a two-year curriculum cycle.

The "Wildcat Wills" focus for November will be on "Thankfulness."

Our Redeemer Prospective Family Open House Week

November 9-13 with time slots offered between 8:30am – 1pm

Safely spaced small groups

Click HERE for the event page on our website--please share!

Your word of mouth is so important, so please post on Nextdoor, Facebook groups or whatever social media platform you use!

We'll also be highlighting our new KinderBridge program that will start 21-22. If you or someone you know is looking for the gift of an extra year for an older 4 or younger 5 for next year, we can help!

Note: Face coverings are required, and we will do a temp check and a COVID question screen for our visitors. Tours are limited to 2 adults. We will look into classrooms rather than enter them as we keep our students and visitors safe.

Reminder: Kids' Club Daily Hours/Fees

3:30 pm- 5:45 pm: $15

5:45 pm - 6:45 pm: additional $10

THIS WEDNESDAY,
November 11: WILDCAT PARENT LEADERS (WPL) MEETINGS!

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Location: Depending on the weather, we will meet outside or socially distanced in the cafeteria. See your time options below.

Mr. Moss will lead both of these first meetings until the new WPL president is elected.

8:30am WPL Huddle: We will welcome our parents and elect our officers. Then we'll brainstorm ideas for connecting our families/parents in this unique environment for the Executive Board to consider when they meet.

4:00pm WPL Quick-Connect: This meeting will be a recap of the morning's elections results, and then we will also brainstorm ideas to be shared with the Executive Board when they meet.

NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER HOLIDAY CARE
